PROFILE

I am an animator with a love for fun, fluid and entertaining animation. Whether it's short films or quick animation loops, I put as much effort as I can into making them enjoyable both to watch and create. Recently, I've been focusing on character animation as I enjoy designing my own characters and bringing them to life. Over the past year or so, I've worked on a number of different projects. The majority of which I directed and animated. I am an ambitious and dedicated animator with a keen eye for timing and movement. My skill set allows me to adapt to any kind of work flow or style and enjoy working in a team. The plan right now is to further broaden my skills and portfolio through experimentation through both personal and professional work. At the moment I'm currently finishing up an internship at Jelly London and am looking to get my animation career started as soon as possible whether that is freelance or full-time.

EXPERIENCE

JELLY LONDON (INTERN)

MAY 2018 – PRESENT

I'm currently on a short internship where I am getting more experience in professional work-flows and took part in the creation of treatments, animatics and delivered/published work for the likes of Birra Moretti and Jelly's instagram.

SHOOT YOU (FREELANCE CREATIVE)

APRIL 2018 – MAY 2018

Finished a small bit of freelance work for the Addlestone studio: Shoot you. For the most part, I was editing and making amendments to projects that were to be delivered that day.

SAINSBURYS (DEPUTY MANAGER)

AUGUST 2017 – APRIL 2018

After finishing university I jumped back into retail for a short while to earn some money before starting my animation career.
